

Comments 0 | Recommend  0

12:00 AM CST on Wednesday, February 11, 2009

ROBERT MILLER

Burns seminar

The Senior Source will host a financial seminar featuring syndicated columnist Scott Burns on Feb. 19 for adults age 50 and up. Burns will discuss "Recovering Your Financial Security: Turning Lemons Into Lemonade."

The session will be at Temple Emanu-El, 8500 Hillcrest Road at Northwest Highway. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m., and the seminar lasts from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

A minimum donation of $5 is suggested, with proceeds benefiting the eight programs of the Senior Source, a United Way affiliate.

"We are particularly grateful this year that Scott Burns has agreed to join us again," said Molly H. Bogen, executive director of the Senior Source.

"The current economic crisis has probably impacted older adults more than anyone else. Many have helplessly watched their nest eggs continue to shrink, knowing they have no time left to rebuild."

Burns will also sign copies of his latest book, Spend 'til the End: The Revolutionary Guide to Raising Your Living Standard Today and When You Retire.

To register, call the Senior Source at 214-823-5700 or e-mail sepd@theseniorsource.org.